

Social Sciences

Child Development

Coursework completion and improvement. Unit 1 and synoptic revision

Coursework completion and improvement Unit 2. Further develop and embed essay writing

Synoptic examination revision. Additional depth and links to KS5 concepts

Y11

Activities which support holistic development and link to the EYFS

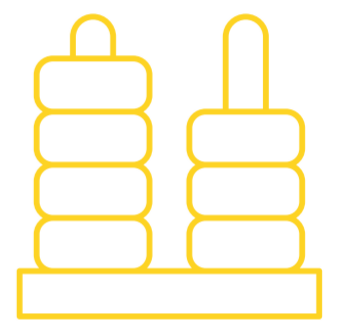

Synoptic revision and application of examination and study skills

Coursework completion and improvement

Unit 3:
Child care and development 0-5 years

Supporting children through transitions and the role of the key worker

Importance of supporting independence, well-being, health and safety and how to safeguard children

Observing children and observation methods. How these support development

Factors and influences that contribute to and affect holistic development

Transitions experienced by children and possible effects on children

Expected patterns of development from birth to five

Y10

Unit 2:
Development and well-being 0-5 years

The stages and sequences of child development from birth to five

Preferred learning style and development of relevant study skills

Preparing for placement. Role and responsibilities of the early years worker in placements

Individual needs and the necessity for fairness and inclusive practice. Use of the EYFS

Y9

Unit 1:
An introduction to working with children aged 0-5 years

Introduction to working with children in a variety of settings and local provision

Equality and Diversity within a childcare setting. Introduction to the EYFS