

HT1:
OLIVER
TWIST

Y9 HT2: VICTORIAN VIEWPOINTS

HT3:
PRELUJICE

BIG QUESTIONS

What is literary non-fiction? How can we manipulate readers' emotions?
How have Victorians influenced our behaviour?

THE BIGGER PICTURE

- A Time of Change (Impact of the Industrial Revolution and inventions)
- Considering topics such as men and women's roles and responsibilities; healthcare; science and wonder; adventure through literary non-fiction writing from the Victorian period.
- Background context for GCSE texts, such as 'A Christmas Carol' and the existing attitudes prior to the setting of 'An Inspector Calls'
- Preparatory work on writing skills (descriptive and argumentative) for GCSE Language
- Oracy skills developed in discussion of viewpoints helpful for Spoken Language Endorsement for GCSE

TIER 2 VOCABULARY

- adverb
- oxymoron
- semantic field
- symbolism
- tone
- emotive language
- complex sentence
- conjunction
- precision
- emphasis
- noun
- adjective

TIER 3 VOCABULARY

- colonial
- duality
- fallen woman
- feminist
- misogyny
- Morality
- Toxic masculinity
- new woman
- patriarchal
- Angel in the House
- establishment
- suffrage

ASSESSMENT:

Create a letter of complaint using some of the literary non-fiction techniques studied.

Deliberate Sentences:

- If ... / Unless...
- Good – better – best
- When – when – when – then
- Do you...? You should
- Just as... so too...

and Writing Skills:

- Letter format and formality
- Article format and appealing to audience
- Using aside / comment
- Using a simile or metaphor
- Using symbolism or imagery
- Short sentence for impact